“ Her passing brings up very early and fond childhood memories of visits with Aunt Virginia and family while staying with my grandparents. She exemplified a life lived long and well. Our sympathies and prayers go out to all of her family and friends.

“ To the family of Aunt Virginia Romine Thomas, I am sorry I am not able to be there at this time due to doctor appointment in Indianapolis. Aunt Virginia was always a happy and upbeat person and loved her family and the Lord. She is in a better place now and I'm sure having a wonderful time with her friends in heaven. Not many families have a mother or grandma for 100 years. What a blessing. She always had a smile. I'll be remembering you in my prayers. Blessings, Mary Esther Romine

“ We are keeping your family in our thoughts and prayers as you celebrate the life of your Mom, Virginia. I have many fond memories of spending time at your home during my adolescent years, a good game of whiffle ball in the barnyard or basketball in the barn. Virginia was always ready to hand out food and drink. She always had a smile and a word of encouragement. Let the happy memories of your Mom be a constant reminder of the wonderful times you shared with her. Virginia was a special lady.

God Bless,

“ To Virginia's Family,

I just want you to know how much I enjoyed visiting with your Mother. She was so fiesty and upbeat. After I lost my Mother I told her I was going to adopt her as my Mother, she wasted no time telling me that was fine, but she would be expecting me to remember her on Valentine Day, Mother Day, her birthday and Christmas!!! On a couple of Sundays Mildred Grindle and went after church to have dinner with her. We told her that we would bring dinner with us. Of course she would not agree to that, we took chicken and she fixed the rest of it. I believe that the last time we did this was her last Sunday at home. When we were getting ready to leave she wanted us to help her get back in her recliner. It took us several attempts to get this done as she kept getting her walker between her and the chair. We were both concerned about her and I called Barb and told her how concerned we were about leaving her alone.

When we visited her in Plymouth she told us about needing to go to the bathroom and a young man came to help her and she said she told in no upcertain terms that he was not helping her. He told he would send a girl in, but she should not get out of her wheelchair by herself. She told him that if they didn't come quickly she would get herself on the stool because there was no way she was going to make a mess.

She was one classy lady and she loved all her family!! Remember all the precious memories, you will find they will become more precious every day!! And remember there is a big celebration going on heaven right now!!!! She is enjoying it, but we all have to wait until it's our turn and she will be there to welcome us!!!!

“ Sharon and I want Jim, Dave, Wayne and Dan and their families that they are in our prayers and wish we could joint you at the service. It is no surprise to any of you that we, part of her extended family, loved her and found her a joy each time we visited with her. We last visited her with Mom, just after her 99th B-day and she said she had not been sure she wanted to be 100, but had decided she may as well "go for it".
She has been a blessing to us and to many many others.
Sympathies to you all for your loss and we will be with you in spirit as you celebrate her life. Love to all, Ken Romine “ Wade & I will always remember all the visits to see her. Wade loved to mow the lawn with the riding mower. Also laugh at her asking Wade why he left wind rows. We didn't even know what a wind row was. But, we were out there with rakes getting rid of those!

There was always a fresh lemon pie waiting then.

We also would take her & Dad to that Amish restaurant up passed Elkhart so she could! have the raisin crème pie. In 2013 when we came home with our Jim & Carol, Virginia wasn't able to go there so we went and brought her home a whole pie for herself.

To the Romine kids we just want to say that we loved your Mom so very much!!
I'll miss the phone calls and hearing her laugh! My last all to her Wade & I both were able to talk to her. I'm so very thankful for that.
