“ Audrey and I have been friends for many years. We did many different things together over the years: Firemen’s Auxiliary, shopping, painting classes, quilting classes, Burket Day Festival Committee, Elkhart County Fair, concerts, festivals and many other things. Audrey was a great support to me when I went through some rough trials in my life. Audrey & Sue Dove graciously did my reception when Mike & I got married. I treasured her friendship over the years and I will miss her greatly. Rest in Peace Audrey.

“ Audrey was one of my best friends in Burket. We enjoyed going shopping together and eating out. Also enjoyed tole painting at Sue Krugers house or just sitting around talking. I loved the times we spent together and will always have great memories.. Wallace and I loved getting together with her and Bill going to Silver Lake for dinner. Will miss you my friend.

“ Audrey and husband Bill, along with Brad, Judy and their children where some of my most treasured friends and considered family. The years I spent around Burket are memories never forgotten. They were a huge part of my life and we share treasured times that help mold my life to who I am now. Good People! I love them forever for always. Dawn Rowland-Norris
