Beatrice J. "Bea" Hughes, 77, of Mentone, Indiana went home to be with the Lord at 10:56 pm, Sunday, Nov. 19, 2023, after a very short illness, at Lutheran Hospital of Ft. Wayne, Indiana.

Bea was born on July 15, 1946 in Warsaw, Indiana to the late Anthony "Pat" and Lois (Whetstone) Walsh. She was a 1964 graduate of Mentone High School and had also attended Beaver Dam. She married July 31, 1965 in the Sacred Heart Church of Warsaw, Indiana to Gene Hughes, he survives. Bea was awarded the Kosciusko Community Foundation Heart of Gold for 2001 demonstrating her outstanding community service and volunteerism. She and her husband were also honored as the Egg Festival Parade Marshals in 2002. She was a certified EMT and held several different positions for the Four-Way Ambulance Service of Mentone.

Bea fed all the crews and half the pits at the races, supporting her husband, in the #47 G&B Racing car. She was also a great hand in the garage. Bea was a major supporter of all Tippecanoe Valley Athletics cheering the teams with their number one fan, her daughter, Teri. But most of all she loved her grandkids and great grandkids, they were her heart.

“ Bea was a wonderful neighbor and friend. I loved going to her house for card club. Her Sausage Rice Pilaf remains a favorite of our family. Bea was always willing to lend a hand wherever it was needed. The Valley stands won't be the same without Bea. My heart goes out to this wonderful family at the loss of one so dear.
