“ I didn't know Beth well, but was always greeted with a smile when we met at school or more recently when she was visiting Sue at Grace Village and I was with my Mom. I appreciate those folks who are always friendly!

My sympathy is with your family as you miss her!

“ Praying for Lori, Ben and your families. My heart is broken with yours. Beth was such a good friend and fun co-worker through the years. I have so many wonderful memories with her as we raised our families together and attended school events to when we worked together for so many years. She was such a joy in my life. Hang on to all of your special memories.
