

Betty L. Burnett Zimpelman

November 30, 1932 - April 23, 2019

Betty Lela Witham Burnett Zimpelman entered this world on November 30, 1932, and left this world on April 23, 2019 at eighty-six and ½ years young. She was married to Robert (Bob) Zane Burnett on May 9, 1951 until his passing on December 17, 1981.

She later married Rex Zimpelman on November 8, 1986 and remained married until her passing.

Betty had a heart of gold. She raised six kids, but she embraced all children as her own. She was a woman of grace and elegance, and loved by all.

She was an amazing cook and would feed all who hungered. It was difficult to wait for dinner at our house because everything always smelled so good. Mom almost never used a written recipe, and to watch her cook was magical. A favorite memory is mom cleaning blue gills for hours and frying up a big batch for dinner. Her grilled bar-b-que chicken was the best. Our mom was the head cook at many neighboring restaurants, which included Smitty's in Etna Green, Red Door in Bourbon, Plymouth Country Club, and the Atwood Café (yes those famous Friday fish fryswere the best). In her later years she enjoyed meeting and greeting everyone at the Mentone Grocery Mart.

Betty loved her dandelion greens and would dig them every spring and fry them up into patties, as well as some of the best homemade dill pickles ever.

Betty always had a smile on her face, and her laugh was infectious to all around her, right up until her last day she was ornery.

Many loved our mom, she often thought of others before thinking of herself. Mom never turned away from a welcomed guest or let a stranger go hungry. Our mother was generous and giving to all. She had a great sense of humor and liked telling or hearing jokes.

Betty was a fighter and fought until her last day on earth. She referred to the others in her Nursing home as kids and would watch over all of them with a loving eye. During her nursing home years mom would get incredibly excited when someone brought her caramels and/or candy bars. Betty loved getting to take a special trip to the DQ into Bremen for an ice cream. Lunches with mom were an adventure. Mom often did not know what to order and it was not unusual for mom to say, hey what is that you are eating, I want that! She would end up eating your meal while you would end up eating whatever she was having.

Betty was preceded in death by her husband Robert Zane Burnett, daughters Pamela Sue Boyer and infant Jo Lynn Burnett, and sisters Patricia Stutzman, Beverly Johnston, and Sandy Rovenstine and brothers Ned Witham and Harry "Curly" Witham. She is survived by husband Rex Zimpelman, her children Beverley (Chip) Wallstead, Tina (Ken) Blackford, Zane Burnett, Jim (AeyRatchaya) Burnett, Kerri (Tracy) Yoder. Grandchildren, Ryan and Eric (Jen) Boyer, Judd and Jason Weirick, Scott (Jacyn) Blackford, Kendra (Joel) Laidig, Todd (Cheyenne) Blackford, Brooke (Kevin) Miller, Jacob Burnett, Ally (Clay) Christmas, Tawan Panupan, and Derek Burnett. Betty has 18 great grandchildren and a brother Rex Witham.

She also is survived by her stepchildren Randy (Elizabeth) Zimpelman, Kelly (Rusty) Nellans, Rusty (Amy) Zimpelman, Krista (David) Neace.

“ My fun first cousin: so many memories of good times at Grandpa Witham's house. Sharing and practicing cheers for Atwood and Mentone. I remember Betty Witham impersonating Betty Hutton. She was a wonderful entertainer. We also shared nice memories with Aunt Mary Witham Teel. Am so glad I could visit at Bremen home and we did "Ole Man Mose" together! Will miss . Tomaline Witham
