“ Dear Miriam & family. Thinking of you all this Holliday season and so sorry for your loss.

Bill was such a loving caring person. We shared so many great times together in Texas. One very special memory was your 60 th wedding anniversary. You were such a special couple. I will treasure all the fun times we shared and may all your wonderful memories somehow sustain your sorrow.

Death leaves a heartache no one can heal but love leaves memories no one can steal.

Bill loved you all so much and he will live on in all of our hearts forever.

Love & hugs Marlyn 🍷🍷

“ Miriam, so sorry for your loss. I know it's been rough couple months. Hugs and prayers. I remember Bill got you a new car and you didn't like it, so when you went home from Texas, he went and got you a different one. But he was always getting you a different car. Then he always painted golf trailer and cart to match. He really looked after you
