“ I could always count on a hug from Brenda! Always friendly, always a smile--you knew when she loved you. She certainly loved her animals, and her family. She holds a special spot in my heart. While I have tears of sorrow for not being able to see her here again, I am confident we will meet again in a joyous place promised to us. I know Brenda was certainly welcomed to her heavenly home with open arms by so many who were happy to greet her there. Thank you, Brenda, for the joy you brought into my live.

“ Brenda and I reconnected at Teels when I would take my mother out to eat. I was so excited to see her after so many years! We would hug and laugh and talk! So whenever I took mom, if she didn't see me first, I would ask if she was working. I will miss her smile and laughter.

“ I love ghost stories so i went to Rochester Library and I found a library book that said the most haunted places in Indiana and there was a story about Brenda Miller's property so I asked her and they should have printed her story because it made me laugh and it was much better than the one in the book
