“ I'm so deeply saddened of the passing of Charlie. He never really talked much when I was around, but he always smiled. He was a nice man and his family loved him dearly. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers. I'm here if anyone needs to talk, especially you Val. God gained another great fisherman to fish in that glorious river above.

“ We, Butch and Diane Warren send our deepest sympathies to Dawn and children of Charlie. We have known this family for decades, and and know just how much they all loved this mischievous man who was no larger than a peanut, bigger than a bear; with a heart bigger than he was.....BUT oh so mischievous! No one could help but love him and his family. He is already missed.
