Steve and Dan, I am so sorry to hear about the passing of your Mother and our Aunt Jean. We all have wonderful childhood memories that will stay with us forever. I will always remember her playing the piano and singing the Oh Danny Boy song. We had such great times when we were all together. I appreciate so much the afgans she knit for all of us. She wanted to make sure that, after she passed, we had something special from her. So, not only will we remember her for that but also for the love and kindness she had for all of us. I share your sorrow and pray that God will comfort you during this time.

*In Christian Love,
Your Cousin,
