“ There are so many incredible memories with grandma. My favorite ones were when my brother and I got to spend the night with her and grandpa. We would beg my parents all the time and very rarely were we ever told no! We would watch movies and eat popcorn. Grandma and I loved watching ice skating together and grandma always made sure to call me when it was on tv so I wouldn't miss it. A lot of times I would drive over to her house and we would watch together. We would go out to eat and grandma would tease how the car always seemed to end up at China Palace! Haha, that was our place. I remember helping grandma put up her Christmas tree and decorations several times. She loved snowmen because she could keep them out all season long. I sure am going to miss her infectious smile and her unconditional love. She loved her family and would do anything for any of us. I miss and love you so much grandma. Say hi to mom for me....

“ My favorite memories of Grandma are spending time with her and Grandpa at the State Fair, spending holidays at their house, going out to eat with them by myself at Bob Evan’s when they’d come to visit (which I thought was super special), staying at their house sometimes in the summer, and them coming to our house on Christmas mornings to watch us open our presents. We used to watch a lot of movies at their house, like Babes in Toyland, and Grandma had the best giant pillows to lay on while we watched them. One year for my birthday, Grandma got me the best purple sweatsuit, and it was my favorite. I wore it all the time. I also remember how Grandma and Grandpa sat in the front row at my high school graduation and they had the biggest smiles on their faces when I walked out after the ceremony, and they seemed so proud. I was lucky enough to get to visit Grandma a couple months ago with my Mom and just chat and reminisce for a few hours. It was wonderful, and I’m so glad we got that time together. Love you, Grandma!
