

Dyanne Lynne Struck Fivecoate

December 19, 1958 - February 15, 2021

Dyanne Lynne Struck Fivecoate, 62, of Chili, Indiana went to heaven and found peace at 6:10 pm, Monday, Feb. 15, 2021 at her residence. After many years of living with debilitating brain and spinal tumors she is once again walking, talking, and enjoying beautiful, heavenly gardens.

Dyanne was born December 19, 1958 in Miami County to Robert and Roberta (Barnhisel) Struck. They survive. She was preceded in death by her grandparents, Doine and Clara Barnhisel and Stephen and Susan Struck.

As a child she lived with her family in Florida, New Jersey, UP Michigan, Montana and then finally back to Indiana. She graduated from North Miami High School in 1976. She attended the John Herron school of Art for two years then transferred to Manchester College. She graduated with an Art Education degree in 1980. She taught Art at Southwood High School for one year.

In 1978 she married Rick A. Fivecoate at the Emmanuel United Methodist Church. He survives. Also surviving is her beloved cat, Ricochet. Together they started their own home improvement business and worked as a team. She attended The Four Square Gospel Church in Peru where she played the piano and organ for many years.

Dyanne was an extremely talented artist. She excelled in watercolor, pencil, stained glass, pottery, quilts and floral design. She played the piano, organ and saxophone. She also made the best gravy EVER! While never mastering the ability to do a cartwheel or play competitive kickball, Dyanne always cheered the rest of us on.

Dyanne and Rick loved to work in their yard and garden together. She had many different types of flowers including over 40 varieties of daffodils of which she could recite both their common and scientific names.

Surviving Dyanne are three sisters, Kim Walden (Lester) - Mexico, Indiana, Lynda Shrock (Jeff)-Gilead, Indiana and Kary Kuhn (Mason)-Denver, Indiana and one brother, Dennis Struck-Denver, Indiana. She also has three nieces, three nephews, three great nieces and three great nephews. She has many cousins that live throughout the country.

The family wants to thank her long time caregiver, Christine Ellis, for the compassionate care over the last few years of her life. Thanks also to her church family for the love and support over the many years during her illness.

A memorial service will be held at a later date. The arrangements have been entrusted to Hartzler Funeral Home 305 West Rochester Street Akron, Indiana.

“ Rick, Sending love from our hearts to yours & prayers abundant. Beautiful Dyanne’s fragrance, like that which was in her garden where things grow so magnificently from her touch, as well as warm hospitality when we brought the students to your home, is as the lovely rose. She has the most adoring heart & that fragrance from Father’s presence touched all she met, everywhere she went. We love you & thank our precious Lord for her life & yours—as you both are His living eternal fragrance. Love You Heart & Soul, Brian & Krista Riner

“ Dyanne taught me so much through our 43 years of friendship. She taught me how to make homemade pizza. Her pies were a piece of art by the way she decorated them. We went to church together, went camping together and had the best campfires ever at their home. She taught me everything I know about flowers. She could clean the fish Rick caught better than anyone I know. Everyone should have someone like Dyanne in their life. We were blessed! We will miss her ❤️ We love you ❤️ Rest in peace dear friend ❤️ 🙏

“ Dyanne’s mom baby sat me when I was 4. I still remember Dianne showing me a drawing of a car. It was more like a photograph!! Why at 47 my mind still sees this now can only be because of her amazing gift in art. Sorry for her loss.

My sincere condolences to Dyanne's family, extended family, and her dearest friends. I knew very little about you Dyanne but from what I do know or remember, you, your siblings, Uncle Bob and Aunt Roberta lead a great life and were brought up to love life and what it had to offer. Dad talked a lot about his younger kid brother and it was nothing less than the life of raising a great family and great bunch of cousins! RIP Dyanne! Heaven has gained another angel!!!
