“ Uncle Junior is what I've always ever called you. I'm going to miss your laugh because it could be picked out in a crowd. I'm sad that I won't hear it again. I'm thankful that you're no longer in any pain and you are with our loved ones who left before us. I love you Uncle Junior and I hope and pray that I will see all of you again someday.

“ Everett was a wonderful husband, step grandpa and brother and Uncle anyone could ask for. He had a heart as big as the universe he will be missed by so many and his memory will be with us always. Now the funny part ask if he was coming to visit he always asked is Linda cooking? He loved my food which I am glad but the last time he ate with us he had 3 bites and he said I am full. Now he is full of life with his wife Marilyn mom and dad and siblings no more pain. Rest In Peace my Dear Brother-in-law. Love you to Eternity
