“ Wink and I send our sympathy and love to all the Bates family. We have fun and fond memories of Jim from visits with the cousins in Bourbon over the last 25 years: weddings, birthdays, funerals, graduations, etc. We loved his "spunk", mischievous twinkle in his eye, and his love of being with family and friends. Wink remembers his sharp wit and sharing trucking stories. We will miss you, Jim! Love, Marcia (cousin Mary Alice's daughter) and Wink Litton

“ Uncle Jim was one of the most fun & ornery uncles that I ever had (the Bates fun came through very strong in him).

Memories:

As a young kid I stayed overnight with uncle Jim, aunt Margaret, & my cousins (my first time to stay overnight anywhere without my parents). I got scared in the middle of the night, I remember uncle Jim sitting on the top step of the stairs with me, offered to take me home, but sat with me, talked, until I calmed down and went back to bed.

Another memory - he pulled a string of sled behind a horse & sleight for several miles through the Bourbon countryside. It was a great time in my childhood.
