

James Everett Goshert

February 28, 1921 - July 31, 2016

James Everett Goshert, 95, a retired farmer of Mentone, Indiana finished his earthly work and died peacefully at 7:25 am, Sunday, July 31, 2016 at Grace Village Retirement Community of Winona Lake, Indiana where he had resided for 12 days.

James was born on Feb. 28, 1921 to Everett and Alice (Carles) Goshert near Atwood, Indiana. He graduated in 1939 from Atwood High School, and from Manchester College in 1943. James served his country for three years during WWII in the Army Air Force. On March 17, 1946 , he married lola Tucker in Mentone and were able to celebrate 70 years together. They farmed near Atwood for five years, and then moved to a farm near Mentone. While living in Atwood, James was the superintendent of the E.U.B. Church in which his mother had taught Sunday School for many years. James had served as Vice-President of the Kosciusko Farm Bureau, Inc. and had belonged to Good Sams Camping Group. He enjoyed reading his Bible and going to the Lord in prayer. His family was his heartbeat.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of such a strong, faithful GENTLEMAN. He will be so very missed by so many. May the loving memories of Jim, be your strength in the days ahead. Just knowing he is with Kay and our Heavenly Father, is strength enough. He is where he belongs. Another angel entered Heaven.
Lots of love and blessings to each and everyone of you.
