Albert was former co-worker / friend/ brother. Best team member i have had opportunity to work with. Immediately became "Poncho & Lefty" (i'm left handed). Had no clue he left us so soon. He will never be replaced. Love this guy

“ I remember when Alberto and his family first moved here to Akron. We were their neighbors. He was always thoughtful and polite to me. I would like the family to know he is remembered. Sending sincere condolences

I didn't know Albert very long but what I learned in that short time was that he was a very generous and caring person and that he loved his family very much. He would help any body with anything. Gonna miss you my friend. RIP Albert.
