“ I am thankful for Judy being a friend and mentor. She showed me what a Proverbs 31 women looked like. I appreciate her being a prayer warrior for my family and myself. I am very thankful for her allowing her daughters especially Kat to help me at home and Riley while Rebecca was alive. I also saw the heart of a real worshipper in her. Now she is singing with the Angels. Judy's life brought glory to God! Shalom to you all, Jane Stichter

“ Always a gracious woman. Some of my children became very good friends with her children. She was like a second mother. Thankful for the humble example she set just serving God and her family and those around her.
