“ Kay and I were classmates at Beaver Dam School from 1st-4th grades. We were born within a month of each other, both went to Manchester College & both taught at Rochester. She was a wonderful, compassionate friend. My sympathies to her family & friends.

“ I will always remember the blessing Kay gave to me and my family, when I was struggling with cancer. She wanted to prepare a thanksgiving dinner for my whole family and I told her it wasn't necessary, thinking it was too much for one person to do. She told me that God had laid this upon her heart to do for me and my family. I will always remember how God blessed my family and I through her act of kindness and service during a difficult time in my life. She had such a servant's heart. She will be greatly missed, but I know she is with her loving Savior. I feel honored to have called her a friend.

“ My condolences to the Goshert family. Kay was my friend and roommate from our Manchester days. I have fond memories of time spent with Kay and our group of friends in East Hall. We spent a lot of time together, chatting, laughing, visiting the homes of each of us and formed deep friendships which last to the present. During one of the group's recent annual get-togethers we made a point to visit Kay at Millers. It was good to see her and see occasional glimpses of the Kay we knew so well. We will miss her, but know she is in a better place and is whole again.

“ Miss Goshert was my ICE teacher at Valley 1986-1987. I remember her as a very quiet, meek person. She cared about all her students and treated us all the same. I remember when she came to observe us "on the job," that some of us didn't have such a clean environment to work in. She didn't let that stop her from doing what she needed to do. She was an awesome teacher and just a great person as a whole. My thoughts and prayers are with the Goshert family. May you rest in peace Miss Goshert...

“ RIP Miss Goshert!! My very favorite HS teacher, I took 3 yrs of both typing and shorthand just to be around this beautiful, happy, inspirational, HAPPY person. She was the highlight of my day for three years! Her enthusiasm for life was infectious!

When they laid her off my Sr. Year.... We were so outraged! We took her to a dinner at Pizza Hut. I have pictures somewhere!

RIP Miss Goshert. You will be missed. You taught us so much. Not just business, shorthand and typing.... But how to stay positive, appreciate life, and love ourselves.

I'm sad you're gone. You made an incredible impact on my life, and inspired me to reach for the stars.

“ She was the most patient, understanding teacher ever. Miss Goshert was my shorthand teacher at Rochester High School in the 80's. The lessons you learned in her classes were not only school lessons but life lessons as well, she went above and beyond. She was not only a teacher but a friend. She will be missed.

“ What a strong young woman Ms. Kay was in her battle. She is so pain free and enjoying her new home in Heaven. She was always such a positive person and made it easy to visit with her until recently. Down deep, I want to think that way back in a shelf in her brain, she always remembered me even though she could not communicate with me. She was a joy to know and was so very kind. Something I know for sure, she loved God with all her heart and soul. She is free at last. We shall all miss her spirit.

“ I so very much enjoyed Miss Goshert for several classes at RHS. In addition to being such a thorough and enjoyable teacher of her business classes, she also provided a great example of how students (especially young ladies) should conduct ourselves, respect ourselves and others. She was always genuinely interested in her subject and her students, and sharing that was a true gift! My sincere condolences to her loved ones.

So sorry to hear Miss Goshert passed away. I'll never forget being in her general business class at RHS. She was always so upbeat, happy & inspirational. She taught me things I'll never forget, & things they don't teach anymore like balancing a checkbook for one. She always wore such pretty dresses & was a very classy lady. I'll never forget her.
