“ Hello there! I was updating my Christmas card list and as I had not received our usual card (AND birthday cards--she never forgot) from Ms. Lillian in a while, I decided to check up on our ol' friend. Lillian was our choir director and pianist at Immanuel So. Baptist Church during her time in Yuma, Arizona. She was a sweetheart of a woman, but no nonsense. We are a military town (Marines and Army) and Lillian decided to form a Marine Corps choir and she did! The troops were not always wanting to participate, but the officers above them told them they would do as they were told--by Lillian! When she gave a directive, the men snapped to! She even got them matching tee-shirts with IMC on the fronts. She was a complete blessing to our congregation. We'll be glad to see her when we get to heaven.

“ I didn't know your mom terry but I wanted you all to know that she must have been a wonderful woman with a great sense of humor with all of those sons!

I'm sure you all will miss her so very much. May you all remember those wonderful times that bring you smiles and joys
