“ My thoughts and prayers to Luana and Jim and their families.

I remember the times we would come to your home in the country. I can still see the room she had for her beauty shop. She is now with Uncle Wilvin and Dennis and many other family members.

Again, thoughts and prayers go your way at your time of loss.

“ I never knew that my grandmother's middle name was Joy, but it is fitting as she was forever kind and loving. I learned so much from my grandmother about strength, acceptance, and generosity. I remember the simple things from my childhood visits to their farm and then lake house.....climbing the tree in the front yard, playing hide and seek with my cousins in the corn fields while avoiding the black and yellow garden spiders that made their webs look like trampolines, and then running into the kitchen to enjoy grandma's home made donuts. I have the utmost love and respect for you, Grandma. Thank you for sharing your love and transforming your house to one full of joy.

“ I loved visiting my grandparents' farm when I was a kid. We fished with them often and I can still smell and picture my Grandma's fried bluegill. And cooked dandelion greens, though I'd rather not remember those. :) Her garden was gorgeous and my favorite flowers were the tall, purple balls that grew alongside the house. She had a beauty salon in her home and my sister and cousins and I enjoyed playing on the spinning chairs and with the rollers and big hair driers. She gave the best hair washes in her big sink. I remember falling asleep listening to the adults laughing and joking and playing "Dirty Hearts" into the night. Grandma was a super great lady. We all really loved and respected her.

“ I have such unending respect for Lucille. She endured more tragedy than most, losing a young husband, her father, two sons, a beloved daughter-in-law, and her husband of 60+ years. She was a business woman long before it was fashionable to be one, and raised a family while working for more than 40 years. But most importantly, she was a wonderful wife, mother and grandmother. Her family was always the most important part of her life. She will be so deeply missed, but what a wonderful legacy she leaves behind. Rest in peace, Lucille, you have more than earned it. I hope you know how much you are loved.

“ I will miss my wonderful Mother-in-Law. She was kind, gentle, sweet and caring. I doubt that she spent a total of 5 minutes in her entire life thinking about herself. She was a strong Christian and demonstrated it daily. She truly was a role model who taught the right values by living them, not talking about them. But my sadness pales in comparison to my happiness for her this morning. She is home, she is happy, her body is no longer broken, she remembers everything and knows everyone and she is with Jesus and all of her family and friends. At the end, she is where she wanted to be. Her values were genuine and she lived the American Dream. Well done, Grandma! And, thank you for your daughter. Your legacy lives on through her and I'm the lucky guy who gets to share it in this life...and beyond. I love you and will miss you and look forward to seeing you again...we all do. Heaven has a new, beautiful angel.

“ *I remember Lucille as a gentle soul with bright eyes and someone that smiled frequently. I learned that she used to play the piano and loved music, especially Gospel Music. Staff enjoyed caring for Lucille at Greenwood Meadows. We will miss her gentle ways.
