“ Marie and me met 37 years ago, and it was then that we became Best Friends and she would always refer to me as her Daughter and that was a True Blessing to me. As time went by, we became more like Family, than just Best Friends and Sisters in The Lord. She always would say Kathy honey, I know that God brought us together for a Reason and she said I will always Love you and your family and be Thankful to God for putting us together. She was a Beautiful Precious Woman of God, And A Loving and Caring dedicated Wife and Mother an Grandmother, she loved all of them so very deeply. Sometimes we could talk for hours, we would cry together and laugh together and she would share her feelings and what was heavy upon her heart to me and we would always pray about whatever the situation was. And that is where things would stay , between me and Marie and God. I could write a book about all the Precious Memories that we made together, but my heart is broken. But I know what Marie would say to me if she could, Kathy honey don't cry and be saddened cause we shall meet again. I just wish that we could have seen each other 1 last time when she came down to Ky to visit. But we didn't get to, but I will see her again in Heaven. And I know until then she will be watching over me from heaven because she is now A Precious Angel. My heart breaks for all of you, I am not there in body, but my heart an love and prayers are there with all of you. May God wrap his loving arms around each and every one of you and comfort you and strengthen you. I am praying for all of you and I love you all so very much. 🙏❤️👉

“ She was beautiful inside and out! I grew up next to her and I remember her making biscuits with a huge bowl, she would make a well in the flour and only use what she needed and the rest of the flour stayed dry. I thought it was magical! Prayers for all who loved her!
