“ Mildred will always be Mrs Harrold to me. She was my teacher at Franklin School in the early 50's. When school schedules didn't work, she would bring Sharon to school with her. Ray Clark and I would entertain her(baby sit). After returning from the service and started teaching Building Trades, she missed very few open houses.My heart and prayers go out to her family. Will miss her wonderful smile and a great friend and role model.I always think, If you can read this," Thank a teacher" Thank you Mrs Harrold for all the memories. Ken Murphy

“ Mike and I always enjoyed our visits with Topsy. Always so full of life and ready to share some of her summer sausage. Talking with her about growing up on the family farm and attending Beaver Dam School. I will always cherish our time with her and the beautiful lap quilt she made for me.

With deepest sympathy,
Mrs. Mike (Cathy) Harrold

“ To all of the Harrold Family.
Lana and my prayers are with you now and the days to come with the loss of Mildred. May all the great memories that have been made over the years with Mildred bring comfort to all of you and knowing that with Gods promise she is able to live forever.

Blessings,
Ross and Lana Deatsman

“ Peace, comfort, and blessings to all our Harrold relatives. We all loved Dorris and Topsy. Especially loved to hear them tell stories of family and farm life. Family reunions were few and far between on that side of the family, but we really enjoyed the one about a decade ago. The children learned that bluegills love cheese balls! Grace and peace in Jesus' name.

“ All of Topsy's nieces and nephews have been so blessed to have had such a wonderful aunt. We will truly miss the last patriarch of the "Craig Trash". We all loved her so much. She was an inspiration to all of us and such a wonderful example of living each day to it's fullest. What a life.....living all of it on her beloved farm; enjoying her Angus cattle, the pond and her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She will never be forgotten. We will always love you, Aunt Topsy.
