“ Being the oldest of Aunt Miriam's nieces and nephews on the Sites side of the family, I remember attending her wedding to Uncle Verlon. After the wedding, my parents, Audrey and Floyd Yarger along with Aunt Mernie, Uncle John and their three younger children all piled into Dad's very wide fairly new Hudson. The plan was to slyly follow the newlyweds to wherever they were going to spend their first night together. It was dark and they zigged and zagged and we followed at a seemingly safe enough distance not to be noticed. They finally arrived at a hotel in Fort Wayne and checked in. From their several story high room, they opened a curtain and waved to us in the parking lot. Obviously, we were not as clever as we thought.

My sincere condolences to the family; I will be with everyone in spirit during the glorious celebration of Aunt Miriam's new life.

*With my love,
Larry Yarger*

“ Miriam Sites was quite the Lady. A great Christian example of vivacious energetic personality. Her desire to help, be of assistance, or do anything to be of value never left her. She, though well aged, will be missed. May all of you in the family be in awe of her steadfast character. She was one of God's special people.
