

Paul G. Mangun

December 9, 1950 - December 30, 2024

Paul G. Mangun, 74, of rural Mentone, Indiana passed at 5:10 pm, Monday, Dec. 30, 2024 at Lutheran Kosciusko Hospital of Warsaw, Indiana.

Paul was born December 9, 1950, in Starke County, Indiana. He was the son of the late Robert W. and Clara M. (Hill) Mangun and found his wife in Stephanie A. Voyles, whom he married on September 7, 1991, in Tippecanoe, Indiana, she survives.

For 32 years, Paul worked at Dalton Foundry, taking on numerous roles and always strived to make things more efficient. He had a passion for hunting, fishing, and all shooting sports. He also raised UKC-registered Beagles for rabbit hunting and in younger days raced motorcycles and worked on all things mechanical.

Paul and Stephanie cherished their weekends dancing and traveling, especially to Montana. Family gatherings were a source of great joy for him.

He took immense pride in the accomplishment of building his own home, using the skills he had acquired. As a father, Paul was always there to teach and support his children. He assisted with many construction and plumbing projects, but his greatest joy was simply being a dad.

He is survived by his wife Stephanie Mangun of Mentone; children Andrea McMillan of Michigan, Heather Banghart of Ft. Wayne, Joshua Banghart of Mentone, Jessica and husband Elton Yeazel of Goshen, Jeremiah and wife Ashley Banghart of Walkerton, Cody Mangun and Megan Conley of Silver Lake; 23 Grandchildren; 15 Great Grandchildren; siblings Donald and Mary Mangun of Milford, Ind., and Rosemary Patrick and Pam Milton of Plymouth.

Paul was preceded in death by his parents, son Michael, infant sister Cindy and sister Wanda Patrick, and brothers Eugene and Ralph Mangun.

No services will be held at this time.

The arrangements have been entrusted to King Memorial Home 101 North Tucker Street Mentone, Indiana.

Donations can be made to the local charity of their choosing or plant a tree.
