“ Raymond worked with my dad Lanny Gillman. For many years, together they kept Mentone Elementary/Junior High school clean and in working order. He and his wife Georgi (what we called her) watched all of the Gillman girls grow up. They were both sweet people and always said hello whenever we saw each other. I loved hearing their stories. They are both certainly missed, but are together again. Praying for the families comfort, as you endure this difficult time.
