“ Something we shall never forget about the lovely, beautiful LADY, Ruth. Butch had two uncles that had married Ruth's sisters, and he always referred to her as Aunt Ruth. After all her sisters were his Aunt so he always thought she was, too. One day we were visiting with her, Butch said "Hi", Aunt Ruth, and she politely explained that she was not his Aunt, legally, but she would be his if he wanted her to be. To this day, we still call her Aunt Ruth.. Rest in peace, pretty lady, you are free and at home. You will be truly missed by so many.

“ I remember all the times Ruth did my Mom's (Eunice Leffert) hair. I come along and spend time with Kathy while she was getting her hair done. Kathy and I would do things together since we lived out here in the country and we're close neighbors as well. Your Mother was always kind to us and I remember Mom and Dad would play cards with Ruth and Joe. Our memories will live on!!!!
