

Sandra Eileen Craddock

June 25, 1943 - January 15, 2021

Sandra Eileen Craddock, 77, of Fernandina Beach, FL, was ushered into the presence of her Savior on January 15, 2021 at Kindred Hospital of Northeast Florida.

She was born June 25, 1943 in Warsaw, IN, to James Lackey and Mary Ann Huffman. On February 28, 1964, in Palestine, she married Clayton Elmer Craddock.

She, along with her husband Clayton, owned Craddock's Air Conditioning in Zephyrhills, FL, where she was the operations manager. She loved worshipping her Lord and Savior and was a Southern Baptist church member for many years. She enjoyed scrapbooking, cooking, playing the piano, and sewing. Most recently she donated hundreds of masks to the local hospitals in the Jacksonville area.

Survivors are daughter, Rhonda (Bill) Yates, Fernandina Beach, FL; three grandchildren, William Cody, Sierra, and Jackson Yates; brother James (Karen) Lackey of Sebring, FL, and two sisters Marilyn (Fred) McSherry, of Burket, IN and Nancy (Jerry) Leedy, of Murrels Inlet, SC.

She was also preceded in death her husband, Clayton Craddock, parents James and Mary Ann Lackey, her brother Richard Lackey, and by her infant daughter, Brenda.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday January 19, 2021 at Blackrock Baptist Church in Yulee, FL, with the Rev. John Kasper officiating. Burial will be at the Palestine Cemetery, in Palestine, Indiana at a later date.

Live stream of the service will be available at <https://www.blackrockbaptist.org/private-event>

Memorials may be made in her name to the Transplant Department at Mayo Clinic, 450 San Pablo Rd. S Jacksonville, FL 32224.
