

Scott D. Bibler

August 27, 1964 - October 2, 2015

Scott D. Bibler, 51, of Claypool, Indiana passed on Oct. 2, 2015 in a small plane accident near Lake Hartwell, Oconee County, South Carolina.

He was born on Aug. 27, 1964 in Logansport, Indiana to Larry and Carolyn (Bundy) Bibler.

Scott was married on June 27, 1987 in Burket, Indiana to Stephanie Nelson she survives.

Scott spent the last 25 years as a football coach and educator at Tippecanoe Valley High School. He left Valley at the end of last school year and accepted a job as the Director of Business Development with CrosssWinds of Fort Wayne where he was currently working.

Scott was a 1982 Tippecanoe Valley High School graduate and was a sophomore member of the 1979 state championship team. He played football for four years and baseball for two at Taylor University. He began teaching in Hagerstown for 2 years, Plymouth for 2 years and Valley. He was the Vikings' head coach from 1990-2005 before resigning in March of 2006 to spend more time with his family, including his two daughters. He led Valley to a sectional championship in 1992. His second stint as the head coach at Valley started in 2014 after serving as an assistant coach under Jeff Shriver. He then coached his last game for the Vikings at the end of last season. He was a man of faith above all and loved his daughters dearly. He enjoyed traveling with family and friends, spending time at the lake, as well as playing golf.

“ *Bibs A one of a kind man
There will never be anyone that could impact our lives the way Bibs did. No matter where you seen him, he always took time to stop, shake your hand and ask how you were doing.A smile on his face, a little chuckle when you talked to him.
He was one of a kind. He was dearly loved by our family and will live in our hearts and our memories forever.*

“ About 3 years ago we were playing Northfield and the guys weren't playing with much heart. Bibs goes in to the locker room at half time and starts dropping "flippn" and "freakn" left and right. Just chewing hind end up and down. He comes huffing out of the locker room and one of the other coaches says, "way to give em hell Bibs." Everybody knew he didn't have a mean bone in his body. He was a players coach and loved each and every one of those guys that played for him. I firmly believe he is the reason my daughter is down at Ball State now. The time he invested in her, both in prayer and face to face, is immeasurable. Bibs arrived in heaven and God said, "welcome my good and faithful servant." Rest easy Bibs.

“ Don and I send condolences to our friends, Larry & Carolyn Bibler, Scott's father and mother. "Scottie", their firstborn, was born while we - along with Forthmans, Padillas, and Coopers - were attending Hillcrest Baptist Church in Logansport, IN. When I first learned of the crash and saw the photo of Scott, I knew he HAD to be Carolyn's son!! I have read through all of the tributes posted at this time and know what a BLESSING they are to you both! We are thrilled to learn through these memorial postings that Scott is with the LORD in heaven, and we will all meet together there soon!

“ R.I.P Mr. Bibler... You were such a great man.. I am gonna miss you more than anything, I have never felt this much pain in my whole entire life, I am supposed to go to you when I am feeling down, but the past couple of days I have been feeling more down than I ever have before 💔 and so now I don't have you to go to.. you always made me feel so much better when I was feeling down.. all I had to do was just talk to you for a while and then I felt better. You were such a great friend to me. You have done so much to help me with my life and other things that have gone on. I can't thank you enough for all the things you have done for me. Thank you so much Mr. Bibler for always being there for me and helping me get through my problems.. 😔 I will never forget all the wonderful things you have done for me and all the memories I've had with you. I will treasure those moments for the rest of my life.. you will never be forgotten by anyone! ❤️ You have made our school such a better place. You came into this world to make it a better place and that is just what you did. God sent you here to make this place just a little bit better and you did a wonderful job and now that you are gone I hope you've opened the eyes of every student and teacher in Tippecanoe Valley high school because you have definitely opened mine and I now see what you were trying to do.. 😊 I will carry you with me in my thoughts, my heart, and my memories for the rest of my life, till the day its my time to go. I could never forget you Mr. Bibler. You meant the world to me! ❤️ I have no idea how I will be able to ever let you go.. it is going to take me a lot of time.. I will be thinking about you everyday so its gonna be hard.. but I can get through this.. I know that if you were still here and it was somebody else that passed than you would be telling me that everything is going to be OK! and then you would talk me through it and make me feel better. I will never forget how you helped me with my friends that passed but now i will have to figure this out by myself now that its you that is gone. I love you so much Mr. Bibler.. Rest easily. You'll FOREVER be with me. I promise! 😔😇💔💔💔💔💔🙏😊 Fly high Bibler. 😔

“ I got to know Scott by playing football with him at Taylor Un. He was the hardest working, friendliest, and a great leader. He lead by both words and example. No one on the team was below him. He treated everyone as if they were the most important person on the team. After college we would run into each other at coaching clinics. He always wanted to know about the family and how I was doing. Going to miss the guy who was known as "Sweet" at TU!

“ Hebrew 4:14-16

14 Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has ascended into heaven, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. 15 For we do not have a high priest who is unable to empathize with our weaknesses.... 16 Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

May God's touch be evident today and in the days ahead. May He be real in an undeniable way to each of you. And may you as family and close friends sense the deep assurance of mercy and grace that Christ offers each of us. May His strength be yours....

Remembering Scott and Stephanie fondly from their days in Plymouth and more recently from interacting with Scott several times as guidance counselors. His legacy will continue in the lives of the many young people and their families that he so wonderfully served, counseled, taught and coached....

their husband and dad. Scott was a great football coach teaching the game the right way and influencing his players and asst. coaches in a positive way. But more importantly to me he was a great person who lived life the way it is suppose to be lived, as a loving child of God. What a positive role model for so many to look to. The football fraternity lost a bright young coach when he decided to hang up his whistle but WE lost a a GREAT person and role model . Scott will

When our son passed away in April of this yr.. We will never forget what Scott told us as we went to the school to help the kids grieve the loss of a classmate and friend on Monday after the accident. He came up to us and told us what an inspiration we are and that with us coming here today it helped the kids more then anything that we took the time to show up. We never knew that 6 months later our son would be greeting his guidance counselor so soon.. We know they are up with Jesus and know our son Kurt is, I am sure talking football with him..And we know we will see them again...

Scott was one of my favorite teachers in high school. I believe he was obedient to demonstrating godly love and was instrumental in me getting through high school alive after I hit rock bottom my freshman year. Not to mention he lovingly took my daughter under his wing during her high school days. I can only imagine the number of lives he impacted throughout his life. And the pain from the loss his family feels right now and forever will only be healed by the savior Scott so faithfully followed. May God wrap His loving arms around his wife and children and family during the crashing waves of grief.

“ What I'm gonna miss about Coach Bibler is not just living his American Dream but football I was really close to him not just as a person, but a colleague and an ally literally I'm really gonna miss talking with him about Grant County our neighborhood and Steve Amorites and Norm Wolf and Andy McCord and Ed Thurman as well and getting autographs of Norm and Steve and Ed Thurman our Marion radio stations AM 860 ESPN radio, STAR 106.9, 1400 WBAT, and most importantly one of my favorite country music stations 99.3 WCJC. I'm really gonna miss having you around as a person Coach Bibler. I'm never gonna forget you :(
