“ I have a lot of memories hanging out at Uncle Scotty's farm as a young child. His daughter Chrystal was my favorite cousin. We spent many hours in his junk yard pretending to drive the old cars. We road horses, and attempted home made zip lining off the barns. He had some mean goats that would chase us through the fields and up trees.

When I grew up, he sold my mom a rebuilt car. I later inherited it. I drove it until it wouldn't go any more. He was a good dad to my cousins and taught them many skills. I was always happy to visit him.

May he be in no more pain. May his kids greive healthily. Amen.
