“ My sweet sweet mama(w) was the absolute sweetest person in the world. She would go out of her way at anytime to do anything for anyone, she had a heart of gold. I loved spending time with her, going shopping, out to eat, or to get our nails done, we always had the best of times. She knew just how to make me smile or laugh, she was so amazing...and so so beautiful, I definitely know where I get my beauty from.. ❤️ I couldn't thank her or God enough for all the things she taught me. She means so so much to me, she was always that person I could call if I ever needed someone a she made sure I knew that every time I went home. She always always knew how to make me feel better, like I said she was the absolute sweetest person in the world. If you were sad, she was getting to the bottom of why and fixing it. I love her more than anyone could ever imagine. ❤️❤️❤️

“ My beautiful Aunt Teresa, had a heart made of gold. She loved everyone of her family and showed us daily how much we meant to her.
When she smiled her whole face lit up. When she was mad you'd better run.
She loved her Lord her Savior, was always working for him to save all our souls, so that we would all be with her in heaven some day.
We lost our loved one and it breaks our hearts. But heaven gained a beautiful angel. No one deserved to be an angel more than my Aunt Teresa. I know that she is with the Lord tonight. For she was one of his children. RIP Aunt Teresa. I love you, always.
