

Wayne D. Kamp

August 28, 1934 - July 3, 2015

Wayne D. Kamp, 80, Akron, passed away at 9:49 a.m. Friday, July 3, 2015, at Parkview Wabash Hospital after being hospitalized Wednesday.

Wayne was born Aug. 28, 1934, in Akron, to Walter and Iola (Wright) Kamp and was raised by C. Everett 'Red' and Elsie Dague Clark.

He was married Sept. 27, 1952, in the Athens EUB parsonage to Isabelle Funk, and she survives.

Wayne was a farmer and a carpenter and millwright, where he was in the union. He also was a seed corn salesman. He started out collecting old farm machinery and it turned into Kamp Salvage. His favorite thing was to go to farm auctions and ride around on the golf cart, talking and bidding with his favorite reserved number 16. Everyone at the sales were always looking for 'Wimpy,' which was the nickname he got from eating hamburgers.

He was a member of the Echoes of the Past Power Show and attended the Olive Branch Church of God of Roann, where he was known as the door greeter. Wayne enjoyed going fishing with his family and friends and in earlier years he loved participating in tractor pulls as 'Ollie' with his Oliver 77. He enjoyed going out to eat all over the area and he never met a stranger.

Kamp is survived by his wife, Belle Kamp, Akron; sons, Dennis L. (Linda) Kamp, New Carlisle, Steven Wayne (Tracy) Kamp, Akron, Franklin H. (Linda) Kamp, Akron, and Andrew J. (Lori) Kamp, Kewanna; daughter, Rebecca Sue (Mark) Powell, Macy; 24 grandchildren; several great-grandchildren; brother, Wendell D. Kamp, Harlingen, Texas; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his grandsons, Jonathan H. 'Popper' Kamp and Wyatt Clarke Davis; sister, Francis Rosseau; and brothers, Myron Rex and Lester Kamp.

Funeral services are 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, July 8, at Hartzler Funeral Home, 305 W. Rochester St., Akron, with Pastor Jeff Sumner officiating. Burial will take place in Athens Cemetery, Athens.

Visitation is from 3 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, July 7, at Hartzler Funeral Home.

Memorial contributions may be sent to Athens Cemetery or the Akron Lions Club.

“ To Mother, Steve, Tracey, and the whole Kamp family:

I just wanted to let you know how much I adored Kampy. I always looked forward to him coming into the office and visiting with us and sharing stories of his family. He was so proud of each and every one of you! He was a gentle soul with a quick laugh and a heart of gold! I feel blessed to have known him. I am so sorry for your loss, and please know that my thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time. May God bless you all.

“ I always remember playing in Uncle Wayne's barn. My gracious, we broke so many bales of hay we could slide from the top floor to the bottom floor. Uncle Wayne never said a word. I also remember the home made ice cream when we came to visit. I will miss him.

“ I used to work auctions for Mark Metzger and remember Wayne. He was always smiling and polite, but he did like to tease. I would often see Wayne and the other "scrap guys" stop loading their latest "I will use this somewhere" and help a stranger who was having trouble loading their items. A big smile and a big heart. Rest in peace Wayne.
